The studio

Websites that feel like a film.

THEA designs, films and builds websites for brands that care about every detail. One studio, from the first frame to the published site: we capture what makes your business unique and turn it into an experience your clients remember.

The method

I.

Free analysis

Send us your website. We study it and point out what is holding it back.

II.

Your concept

Within 72 business hours you see your new website, on desktop and mobile.

III.

Creation

If you love it, we film, design and build it, and take it live for you.

The collection

Three ways to work with us. Each one is tailored to your brand and quoted personally after your free analysis.

Essential

A bespoke website, refined and fast.

- Designed around your brand, never a template
- Up to five pages, flawless on mobile
- Two languages, contact form and WhatsApp

Cinematic

Your story, told as you scroll.

- Everything in Essential
- A cinematic opening that moves as visitors scroll
- Visuals created in our studio for your brand
- A vertical version made for phones

COMPLETE SERVICE

Signature

From our camera to your website.

- Everything in Cinematic
- A day of filming at your business, with our own crew and cameras
- Your real spaces, people and craft in the cinematic opening
- Three vertical clips for your Instagram, included

Signature Plus

For brands with several locations, properties or spaces: more filming days and a complete production, designed around your project.

Your business deserves to be seen the way you see it.

Begin with a free analysis of your website, with no commitment.
